

Study Costs

Study costs at Xiamen University are relatively low compared with most of the other major universities in China and beyond. A good variety of scholarships are available to international students, including Chinese Government Scholarships, Confucius Institute Headquarter/Hanban Scholarships, Fujian Provincial Government Scholarships, Xiamen Tan Kah Kee Scholarships and Xiamen University Scholarships. Full scholarships cover tuition, accommodation, living allowance and insurance costs, while partial scholarships cover one or several items under full scholarships.

Detailed information is available in the “Scholarships” section at <http://admissions.xmu.edu.cn>.

1. The international student apartments on the Siming campus offer 4-person rooms, with daily accommodation fees per bed ranging from RMB 8 to RMB 50. Students on the Xiang'an campus will be accommodated in suites, each of which comprises 4 double-rooms. The accommodation fee is RMB 2,000 per academic year. Please refer to the updated notice of the year for the specific accommodation fees.

International students accommodating on campus are required to pay the water and electricity fees in accordance with the University's regulations. Details related to the charging ways and standards, please refer to the Enrollment Instruction for the New Students.

Phone numbers for enquiries about on-campus accommodation for international students:

- ① Siming Campus: +86 (0)592 2180501
- ② Xiang'an Campus: +86 (0)592 2886252

2. Due to the limited availability of dormitories on the Siming campus, priority will be given to students who are recipients of full scholarships or scholarships that cover on-campus accommodation on the Siming Campus.

3. Recipients of Chinese Government Scholarships or Confucius Institute Scholarships that cover on-campus accommodation fee, if they give up free on-campus accommodation and choose to live off campus, can apply for accommodation subsidy. However, this does not apply to recipients of the Professional Development Program for Chinese Language Teachers in South Asian Countries - Master of Teaching Chinese to Speakers of Other Languages (MTCSOL) Students. Please refer to the updated notice of the year. For enquiries, please contact XMU's Overseas Students Affairs Office on +86 (0)592 2183606 or at osao@xmu.edu.cn.

4. Off-Siming campus accommodation:

Students who fail to secure on-campus accommodation are expected to arrange for their off-campus accommodation on their own before their arrival. The monthly rental of apartments near the Siming campus is around RMB 2,500 per room.

Notes: On-campus accommodation fees are subject to change upon approval by price regulators.
